On application for membership it is understood that you agree to the below:

As the Paint & Palette Group plan and promote functions to enable all participants to enjoy demonstrations, workshops and exhibit their artworks at selected venues, we hereby state that this art group of Edenvale, Chairperson and persons on the Committee are not held responsible for any damages, theft, injuries, accidents or misfortunes that may occur during these periods/times. Each individual, artist, or family is to be responsible for their own wellbeing, as well as physical health, and care of self.

Whilst every care is taken and security is provided, the Paint & Palette Group or Management of the Edenvale Community Centre cannot be held responsible for any theft and as above stated, during these events, or at any time that may relate to the arriving or leaving of venues. The same applies to artworks left in the care of those on duty at venues, or left with other Galleries or art groups.

Each individual is requested to take care of all personal items, and to keep vigilant when fulfilling periods/times of duty at any venue and the associated duties thereof.
